

VESDA VLC-505 VN Series End of Life (EOL) Notice - Greater China Region

February 2026

Overview

The VLC 505 series, launched 25 years ago, has established itself as a cornerstone of the fire detection industry.

To continuously deliver premium aspirating smoke detection products and services, we are officially phasing out the VLC product line in Greater China Region. This phase out is effective immediately. Orders placed before 31 December 2025 will be re-assessed and suitable alternatives will be recommended as replacements.

As part of this transition, we encourage our customers to explore our portfolio.
